Alaska's finest wilderness cruise
Long, long ago, unnamed and unknown, a special place lay covered under mammoth rivers of ice. These frozen masses crept over the earth like giant glacial artists, slowly recreating the underlying surface.

Today, islands, bays, and coves etched in deep fjords are the finished artwork of this great carving force. Once encased in ice, this enchanted seacoast environment now bursts with natural wonders.

From glistening seas to flowering meadows, from virgin forests to mountain peaks—it is rich and vibrant; it is wild and free. Unrivaled in beauty, stunning in diversity, teeming with life… Alaska’s Prince William Sound, home of Discovery Voyages.

The Chugach National Forest, at 5.5 million acres, encompasses the Copper River Delta, the Kenai Peninsula, and Prince William Sound. This wilderness treasure, rich in cultural heritage, abundant wildlife, and scenic beauty is home to Discovery Voyages.
"But just as we entered the famous Prince William Sound, that I had so long hoped to see, the sky cleared, disclosing to the westward one of the richest, most glorious mountain landscapes I ever beheld—peak over peak dipping deep in the sky, a thousand of them, icy and shining, rising higher, higher, beyond and yet beyond one another, burning bright in the afternoon light, purple cloud-bars above them, purple shadows in the hollows, and great breadths of sun-spangled, ice-dotted waters in front.... Beauty in a thousand forms awaiting us at every turn.... It is full of glaciers of every description, waterfalls, gardens and grand old forests—nature’s best and choicest alpine treasures, purely wild—a place after my own heart."

John Muir, 1899, The Harriman Expedition

"We enjoyed every minute, every twist and turn of the weather, every bite, and every view on this great voyage. The crew went out of their way to make this a great experience, and our last day exemplified everything we hoped to see in Alaska. Thanks for attending to our every need."

Tony and Gary Barclay, Maryland
Built in the late 1950s, the 65-foot, U.S. Coast Guard certified Discovery combines the finest blend of comfort and utility. Named after one of Captain Cook’s ships, the vessel’s atmosphere is one of charm and classic style.

Unlike cruise ship giants, the Discovery’s size enables access to Prince William Sound’s more intimate inside passages. The Discovery’s traditional design maximizes use of a fully heated interior space. Six private cabins provide upper and lower single berths and storage space for personal effects. Two shared, lower-deck bathrooms provide complete facilities, including hot showers. Dining in the lounge includes delicious, seasonal, fresh, home-prepared meals. The ship’s rugged construction suits her well for travel in Alaska’s remote wilderness passages.

“Fair weather, calm seas, great food, wildlife galore, truly a trip to a wilderness paradise. May such beauty be around forever for everyone to enjoy. A magical experience for us all, we feel so privileged to be here.”

Ginny and John Marshall, Virginia

~Time Magazine
“After a two-year search, we found the ideal way to see Alaska, at least Prince William Sound—on the Discovery. Our expedition met our fondest dreams and wishes. It has been a terrific experience to celebrate our 45th wedding anniversary.”

Cliff and Carol Stiles, Minnesota
Our Voyages offer an adventurous yet comfortable means for people of most any age and physical capability to explore this astounding wilderness seacoast.

Through photography, exploration, or relaxed sightseeing, guests interact with their surroundings according to their degree of interest. Some visitors enjoy a hike with a physical challenge; some prefer easy walks along the shores. Others experience the Sound’s beauty from the walk-around deck or the spacious lounge of the Discovery. The adventurous at heart can explore their environment more closely by using the Discovery’s on-board kayaks or taking guided zodiac excursions to access shoreside hikes.

“My wife and I came aboard in our mid-seventies and left ten years younger. Great captain, crew, food, boat and itinerary. Hiked, climbed, etc. An unsurpassable experience.”

Joanne and Edgar Levinson, New York
Enter Prince William Sound’s amphitheater of beauty where nature remains in its purest form, free to be explored, full of discoveries.

This region contains the greatest diversity of habitats found along the entire Pacific Coast and includes the world’s northernmost temperate rainforest. Snow-capped peaks stretch skyward from virgin shores clothed in towering spruce trees. Mammoth glaciers descend the mountain valleys, thundering giant icebergs into the sea.

Three thousand miles of islands, bays, and coves interlock with the sea like giant puzzle pieces, providing homes for a myriad of shorebirds, waterfowl, and marine mammals—all participants in the festival of life that surges under Alaska’s nightless summer skies.

Clean water and wild places are vital to our livelihood. We believe that interacting respectfully with our environment is essential to the responsible stewardship of these gifts.

We therefore employ low emission technology, fund clean energy projects, participate in public resource planning, and support those who demonstrate responsible management of our precious public resources. We are also certified by Adventure Green Alaska for environmental sustainability.

Our small family owned and operated business intentionally keeps group sizes small in order to “step lightly” upon this great landscape, providing our guests a genuine and intimate encounter with Alaska, not only for today, but for many generations to come.
Traveling in Prince William Sound presents an ever-changing array of sightseeing opportunities. Each trip is unique due to the diversity of weather and seasonal occurrences intrinsic to the Sound. Flexible itineraries allow the Discovery to pursue the most spectacular sights of the moment with an immediacy that can only be found by following the natural ebb and flow of life and changing weather in the Sound. Nights are spent at anchor in the Sound’s protected bays, fjords, and harbors.
Discovery Classic Voyage
A land & sea-based natural history adventure
Our classic favorite-destination journey
Available in 3, 5 or 6 day versions

The “Classic Voyage” itinerary is the result of years of navigating and exploring the magical sheltered watersways of Prince William Sound. On this land and sea journey, we share our favorite destinations, highlighted for scenic beauty, wildlife viewing and shoreside explorations.

Surrounded by the world’s northernmost temperate rainforest, rugged mountain ridges, and gentle ocean waters, the Sound is considered a world-class travel destination. This voyage suits people of average agility.

Daily excursions provide intimate encounters with Alaska’s marine life and climate. While traveling in the home of whales, sea lions, sea otters, harbor seals, bald eagles, and many more residents of this wilderness sanctuary, the pace is gentle; the scenery epic. Years and years of voyages continue to deliver unique experiences, making the magic of Prince William Sound a never-ending encounter.

Itinerary

Day 1
Arrive in Anchorage and transfer on your own to your downtown accommodations (included).

Day 2
Discovery staff will pick you up from your accommodations for a private shuttle along the scenic Turnagain Arm en route to Whittier for a warm welcome aboard the Discovery. Enjoy lunch while the ship navigates the icy, blue waters of Barry Arm. Take a guided zodiac ride to explore this magnificent area before the evening anchorage.

Day 3
Mornings aboard the Discovery are relaxed with a hot, home-cooked breakfast. Sail through Knight Island and Dangerous Passages towards Icy Bay. Some of the Sound’s most frequent orca and humpback whale sightings are found along this route; keep your eyes peeled for dorsal fins. Navigate Nassau Fjord to the terminus of Chiniak Glacier, a 200-foot wall of ice that topples giant, blue chunks into the sea. Hundreds of harbor seals make Icy Bay their summer home. Take a hike above the glacier followed by a relaxing dinner while the Discovery travels to the evening anchorage.

Day 4
Visit a raucous Steller sea lion haul out en route to an impressive 300-foot waterfall. Take a short zodiac ride ashore for a guided hike to the top of this thundering waterfall. Next is a visit to Oyster Dave’s farm. Continue through With Passage to the fringes of College Fjord for the evening’s anchorage.

Day 5
Awake to some of the world’s most spectacular scenery—corridors of breathtaking beauty, sprawling glaciers, and a panoramic skyline of mountain grandeur. Harbor seals haul out on the flourescent of icebergs watch closely as the Discovery navigates the icy, blue waters of Barry Arm. Take a guided zodiac ride to explore this magnificent area before the evening anchorage.

Day 6
Spend the morning exploring the wonders of Harriman Fjord and Surprise Glacier. Hike along the shore among beached icebergs stranded by the ebbing tide. Enjoy lunch while the Discovery goes deeper into the ice-filled fjord for another kayak excursion.

Day 7
Awake immersed in a wilderness sanctuary of unparalleled natural beauty. Take in the morning-light on the deck of the Discovery while enjoying a hot cup of coffee or tea. These spellbinding sights and dramatic sounds leave you humbled and feeling insignificant amidst this powerful living landscape. Enjoy one last hike before returning to Whittier where you meet your private shuttle back to Anchorage.

Overnight in Anchorage at your accommodations (included).

Day 8
Transfer on your own to the airport for departures home, or you may choose to extend your stay in Alaska.

“Alaska had such an effect on me. I dreamed of it every night for two weeks. I have been to beautiful beaches in Greece, I have snorkled the coral reefs in Belize, and I have kayaked the Salmon River through Idaho. But Alaska is breathtakingly beautiful and in a class of its own...Thanks for the best vacation I've ever experienced.”

~ Catherine Hartman

For those seeking a more interactive experience with Alaska’s natural world, the “Kayak and Hiking Voyage” is similar to the “Classic Voyage” but incorporates longer hikes and more extensive sea kayak excursions, all guided by the qualified Discovery staff.

This trip is for those young at heart who like active participation in the natural world. Trek the mountain meadows of this magnificent landscape, hike through rainforests, and explore the wild tundra; paddle in pristine saltwater passages; and capture secret moments of solitude with the abundant marine life that calls Prince William Sound home.

This voyage is built around your interests; every level of experience is accommodated. It is not an expedition, but certainly geared for the active traveler.

In addition to daily shore excursions, we target our favorite sightseeing places: waterfalls, calving glaciers, and virgin old-growth forests, just to name a few. Hikes into the surrounding hills grant dramatic vistas over the ancient fjords that encompass the Sound’s calm waters. Kayak journeys offer a completely different view of the marine world, including up-close encounters with birds, harbor seal, and other inhabitants of the pristine waters revealed to a quiet traveler.

Depending on the seasonal wildlife happenings and the ever-changing weather, this voyage moves in sync with the Sound’s marine rhythms.

Itinerary

Day 1
Arrive in Anchorage, and transfer on your own to your downtown accommodations (included) for a comfortable night’s stay.

Day 2
Meet the Discovery staff for a private shuttle along the scenic Turnagain Arm en route to Whittier for a warm welcome aboard the Discovery. Enjoy lunch while sailing to our first kayak or hiking excursion. Take a short hike through lush rainforest vegetation and view countless rivers and waterfalls. Anchor in a secluded cove.

Day 3
Mornings aboard the Discovery are relaxed with a hot, home-cooked breakfast. Sail through Knight Island and Dangerous Passage towards Icy Bay. Some of the Sound’s most frequent orca and humpback whale sightings are found along this route; keep your eyes peeled for dorsal fins. Then navigate through Nassau Fjord to the terminus of Chugach Glacier, a 200-foot wall of ice that topples giant, blue chunks into the sea. Hundreds of harbor seals make Icy Bay their summer home. Take a hike above the glacier; then enjoy a relaxing dinner while the Discovery travels to the evening anchorage.

Day 4
Explore the southern end of Knight Island, a large island filled with undulating peaks, broad bays, and lush vegetation. The currents bring fresh seawater into the area which draws in whales, sea lions, and other marine life. After a kayak excursion, join the Discovery for lunch while we sail for northern Knight Island and a shore hike which reveals grand vistas of the Chugach Mountain range, followed by our evening anchorage.

Day 5
The Discovery sails up a long fjord to a tidewater glacier for a kayak excursion. Hundreds of harbor seals make the inlet their summer home using the floating ice as resting platforms and safe places for birthing. Enjoy a shore hike which takes you up the hill adjacent to the glacier to a tremendous view. A fine evening meal is served while sailing to a quiet evening anchorage.

Day 6
Take a hike between two bays that traverses a mountain meadow clothed in grandeur. Walk along dwarf spruce and alpine hemlock, through gardens of lush moss and delicate wildflowers. It is Prince William Sound at its finest. Meet up with the Discovery, and continue the journey to an impressive, 300-foot high waterfall. Anchor in Barry Arm for the evening.

Day 7
Awake to some of the world’s most spectacular scenery—corridors of breathtaking beauty, sprawling glaciers, and a panoramic skyline of mountain grandeur. Harbor seals hauled out on the flotillas of iceberg watch closely as the Discovery navigates the icy, blue waters of Barry Arm. Kayak along the shores of Harriman Fjord, and enjoy a picnic lunch prior to a hike up the surrounding hills for a matchless view of Mount Muir, Mount Gilbert, and Mount Gannet. Lunch is served while taking in the final sights of Passage Canal prior to docking in Whittier and meeting your private shuttle to Anchorage. Overnight in Anchorage (included).

Day 8
Transfer on your own to the airport for departures home, or extend your stay in Alaska.

"This trip was so incredible. I don’t want to go home. Every day was better than the last. I can’t wait to come back!! Now I know what a true Alaskan Adventure is!"

The Grand Alaska Journey
11 days, 10 nights
A land & sea-based natural history adventure
Prince William Sound and Denali National Park
Available in 11 or 12 day versions

The "Grand Alaska Journey" combines two of Alaska's prized destinations for scenic wilderness exploration and wildlife viewing. Guided by a local Alaskan naturalist, the journey samples the world famous Prince William Sound on a five or six day "Classic Voyage" aboard the Discovery and a three day intimate tour into the unparalleled wilderness sanctuary of Denali National Park.

The Discovery-based coastal portion samples from an itinerary of hand-picked locations, the fruit of many years of exploring the Sound's gentle waterways and surrounding landscape. Daily activities include wildlife viewing and sightseeing, shore side hikes and kayak excursions, all providing amazing scenic and photographic opportunities. See the "Classic Voyage" description.

The inland portion of the trip includes cultural points of interest in Fairbanks or Anchorage, and ventures into the heart of the Alaska Range mountains to Denali National Park, home to North America's tallest mountain, Mt. Denali. The mountain meadows of Denali flourish under a continual summer sun, and wildflowers and plant life grow aggressively in spite of the delicate ecosystem and harsh sub-Arctic climate. Based at a comfortable lodge situated deep within the park, enjoy hikes in the shadow of dramatic mountains, and scope the tundra and taiga landscape for grizzly bears, moose and caribou.

The trip begins in Fairbanks and concludes with a final night in Anchorage (some trips begin in Anchorage and conclude in Fairbanks).

Itinerary

Day 1
Arrive in Fairbanks and take a free shuttle to your accommodations to meet your guide for a welcome dinner.

Day 2
After breakfast, visit the University of Alaska Museum of the North to learn about Alaska Native culture and history, and view 2,000 years of Alaskan art. In the afternoon, travel approximately two hours in a luxurious, private van to the Denali National Park entrance, and visit the Denali Park Visitor Center, followed by a tour of Jon Nierenberg’s dog kennels to learn about winter dog mushing in the Denali Park region. Overnight at Earthsong Lodge (or similar).

Days 3-4
Travel 90 miles into Denali National Park by private vehicle with frequent stops to observe wildlife, stretch legs, and enjoy a box picnic lunch en route to Skyline Lodge in Kantishna. Spend two nights at Skyline Lodge in comfortable cabins with a spacious deck and views overlooking the Moose Creek Valley. Shared bathroom facilities are located near the cabins on a wooden walkway. During the day, explore the exquisite wilderness area, including Wonder Lake with tremendous views of Denali. Enjoy hiking among tundra wildflowers, wildlife viewing, biking, photography, or take a shuttle along the Denali Park Road to revisit the wilderness of the Park. In the evening, if the weather permits, take a stunning, flight-seeing tour (included) in a small plane around Denali's summit.

Day 5
After breakfast, travel six to seven hours along the Denali Park Road back through the Park with opportunities for great animal viewing, photography, and mountain vistas of Denali and the Alaska Range. Moose, caribou, grizzly bears, Dall sheep, and other animals are commonly observed along the Park Road. After exiting the Park, continue driving south on the Parks Highway, and overnight at accommodations in Anchorage (enjoy dinner on your own).

Days 6-10
In the morning embark on a scenic and photographic drive along Turnagain Arm—situated adjacent to the Chugach State Park—to the port town of Whittier. Meet the Discovery captains and crew, and after a welcome lunch on the Discovery, begin your voyage into the magical sheltered waterways of Prince William Sound. Sail through intimate fjords with tidewater glaciers, lake amidst the lush, green temperate rain forest and rolling green meadows; kayak among floating icebergs; watch glaciers calve huge chunks of ice into the fjords; view and photograph dramatic landscapes, sea otters, sea lions, harbor seals, whales, birds, and other marine wildlife that make Prince William Sound home. The Discovery is renown for its delicious, home prepared meals using locally caught seafood, including salmon, halibut, and shrimp. While at anchor in a sheltered cove, enjoy a complimentary bar of beer, wine, and spirits as you relax during the evening in the Discovery's salon, surrounded by a panorama of unparalleled scenery.

Day 11
Return to Whittier after six wonderful days exploring Prince William Sound with your guide and the Discovery Voyages crew. Private van transfer to Anchorage for your overnight accommodations. Dinner is on your own at one of Anchorage's many excellent restaurants.

Day 12
Depart for home, or continue on your own personal travel itinerary. Airport transfers are not included.

"Top notch service, intimate knowledge and passion only surpassed by the power and grandeur of the Alaskan wilderness."

The exclusive Discovery Charters are a perfect fit for families or groups who seek a bit more privacy and customization to their travel plans. From family reunions, photography excursions, to educational outings, our custom voyages are designed to offer a unique encounter with the astonishing diversity of life in the Sound’s marine and terrestrial habitats. The Sound is perfectly suited for a group travel destination because of its protected shores and calm waters.

Captains Dean Rand and Megan Ciana and their professional staff work with you to create a vacation or excursion that best suit your interests, needs, and schedule. Choose your length of voyage, and have the Discovery serve as a staging ground for immersion into wilderness beauty beyond your imagination.

Silent, sheltered coves, and the roar of plunging waterfalls; green-canopied rainforests and massive tidewater glaciers; wildlife viewing from the ship’s complete walk-around deck and expansive windows. The Discovery carries two large, outboard-powered, inflatable zodiacs used for shore visits. Single and double kayaks are stored onboard and used for kayak excursions. Double kayaks are stored onboard and used for kayak excursions.

Alaska is a priority, and you desire to avoid the crowded travel destinations of industrial tourism, skip the masses and book a private voyage with the Discovery. The Discovery can be chartered at daily or weekly rates with accommodations for twelve adults in six cabins fitted with upper and lower single berths, with some flexibility for larger groups.

With freshly prepared meals using locally caught seafood, comfortable accommodations, experienced captains, crew, and guides, the best of Alaska is at your fingertips.

“We came as strangers from far away places and we are leaving as family and friends. I am in love with my PWS — thanks for the vacation of a lifetime.”

~ Meg, Dale, Emily (13) and Hannah (8) Streams, Lederach, PA

Dean Rand and Megan Ciana are the owners and operators of the family run Discovery Voyages. In addition, they are your licensed captains and naturalists during your voyage.

Dean began his Alaskan maritime experience in the Bering Sea crab fisheries in the 1970s. He continued with commercial fishing ventures as well as forestry projects throughout Alaska and in the late 1980s began providing logistic support for maritime scientific research studies in Prince William Sound. He and his two daughters started the tourism business aboard the Discovery in 1992 in the coastal community of Cordova. In 1997, they relocated to the small town of Whittier in Western Prince William Sound to provide better access for their growing tourism business. Dean is an accomplished shipwright and keeps the Discovery in top notch working shape. Megan Ciana met Dean in 2010 and they were married in 2015 on a lush mountain hillside overlooking a glacier in Prince William Sound. Megan is a licensed captain, a licensed physical therapist, and an accomplished gourmet chef. She handles much of the business details, booking, and correspondence responsibilities for Discovery Voyages.

As owner/operator and captains of the Discovery, Dean and Megan are fully committed to sharing their knowledge and experience with you to ensure you have the vacation of a lifetime.

The M/V Discovery is distinguished among other vessels in the small cruise ship category by maintaining status as a U.S. Coast Guard inspected and certified passenger vessel. This means it adheres to the strictest safety regulations, including annual examinations of the vessel’s structural, mechanical, and safety equipment in addition to requirements for captains and crew licensing, training, and testing. This certification also allows the Discovery to obtain a legal liquor license and offer complimentary wine, beer, and spirits as part of your tour package.

Two knowledgeable naturalists and experienced guides round out the Discovery crew. This helps to accommodate for varying guest interests or activity levels.
What Airport do I Fly to?
Guests fly to Anchorage, Alaska, to the Ted Stevens International Airport (ANC). The downtown accommodations (included in your trip package) are a short 10-15 minute taxi ride away (not included).

Where do we Voyage?
The M/V Discovery is based out of the port town of Whittier, approximately one hour southeast of Anchorage via our private Discovery shuttle service. We voyage entirely inside the sheltered waters of Prince William Sound. With more than 3,500 miles of coastline, 150 glaciers, including 17 tidewater glaciers, there is a lot to see and do!

What about the Itinerary?
The itineraries supplied are a sample of what you may experience on-board. Our itineraries are extremely flexible and completely dependent upon what weather and wildlife have to offer. We generally make two off-boat activities per day.

How Difficult is the Trip?
Average agility is required to navigate the ship’s narrow stairways leading to the sleeping quarters and bathrooms in the lower deck, or to access the smaller inflatable zodiacs for optional shoreside excursions and instead experience the Sound’s spectacular shores while others choose not to participate in the optional challenge (which may include rock scrambling, uneven bog or mud, or for expenses incurred if such were to happen).

What about Fishing?
The Discovery does not provide fishing opportunities.

Do I Need Experience to Kayak?
No! Most guests have never been in a kayak. Our single and double person kayaks are sturdy with wide, open cockpits (we do not use spray skirts). Kayak excursions happen in the quiet and calm, back bay waters, not the open ocean.

Discovery Dining
The Discovery’s upper deck salon is surrounded by large windows creating a magnificent natural dinner theater. Carefully prepared, home-cooked meals await you, featuring locally caught seafood, such as seasonally fresh Copper River king salmon, sockeye salmon, halibut, oysters, shrimp, and rockfish. The tastefully prepared main courses are served with fresh, quality vegetables, rolls, soups, and fruit (organically grown ingredients are used whenever possible). Beverages include fruit juices, soda, milk, and a complementary bar of fine wines, quality beer, and spirits.

Rain Gear and Rubber Boots
The Discovery provides rain jackets, rain pants, rubber boots, and rubber gloves for all guests if needed due to inclement weather (rain pants and jackets sizes XS-XXL).

Single Supplements
Please inquire about single supplement options and fees.

Payment Schedule and Fees
We ask for the following non-refundable deposits to make a reservation in the year prior to the voyage:
• $750 per person for the Grand Alaska Journey
• $500 per person for all regularly scheduled voyages
• $4,500 per voyage for exclusive charters

Gratuity for the Crew
Your Discovery crew firmly believes that a gratuity is not required nor expected, but rather earned. Gratuity amounts are certainly a matter of personal preference, but approximately 5% of your ticket price for the crew corporately seems to be the norm. Gratuities may be given directly to the crew member(s) or to the captains with designated instructions.
